Advice to Mothers

Have you had baby's photograph taken?
It's an art to take baby's photograph as it should be taken. To catch the rosy little smile, the pretty little dimples. Such photographs become prized possessions of baby's days in years to come. We have had years of experience in photographing children. They always look their best when we take them. No troublesome posing. Snap them in a jiffy.

REBELS PLANNING A

SIEGE OF TORREON.

Army of 7,000 Now on Its March Across Mexican Desert.

Tijuana, Mexico, May 3.—The entire rebel army, numbering about seven thousand men, assumed the offensive today. General Pascual Orozco, the rebel commander in chief, starting his army across the desert.

That General Orozco intends to make his first stand with his federal troops at Torreon was seemingly confirmed by the withdrawal of his advance guard from Comelco upon the appearance of Colonel Canales with the vanguard of the rebel cavalry.

There was no fighting and the rebel leaders telegraphed news of their first "triumph."

Rebel leaders are convinced that the main engagement will be fought at the gates of Torreon, but if present plans are followed the city will not be assaulted but will be besieged.

SENATOR TILLMAN MAKES

A SENTIMENTAL APPEAL.

Graves for Re-election That He May Die in the Harness.

Spartanburg, S. C., May 3.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, "Pitchfork Ben" to friends and enemies, and one of the most picturesque figures of the United States senate, has published a sentimental appeal to the people of this state to return him to his office. His term expires March 3, 1913.

"I ask you to re-elect me, although my health is broken, and I am no longer the strong and vigorous man I once was," said his appeal in part. "I have a strong desire to die in the harness, for sentimental reasons only."

THERMOS BUILDING.

Superintendent Visscher Here for Final Checking Before Bids are Asked.

Having been notified by the architect that the plans for the new Thermos building were ready, Supt. C. H. R. Visscher of the American Thermos Bottle company came here from New York Friday afternoon and was in conference with the architects and the building committee of the Norwich Industrial Improvement corporation. This committee comprises W. E. Hill, F. W. Carr, S. B. Palmer and John Eccles.

The plans and specifications were checked up and prepared for an early submission for bids.

What the plans call for is a brick building of modern mill construction, 102.5 feet wide by 212.8 feet long. The floor will be 16 feet between the roof of the top floor to be 24 feet in height. There will be a stairway and halls on each side of the building, also an elevator at each end. The basement will be 35 feet wide. It will have three-foot floors and windows seven feet wide and 12 feet high. The flooring will be of two-inch plank.

The boiler house will be 55x33 1-2 feet and will have installed a 125 horse power heating boiler.

Arrangements have been made to have a 100-foot spur track extending from the Consolidated road to the plant running up to the platform in front of the building.

The house will be of steel and will run up to 10 feet.

TROLLEYMEN VOTING.

Statewide Vote Taken on Friday on New Wage Rate Asked For.

The wage agreement now in effect between the Connecticut company and the trolleyman expires June 1 and was fixed by a board of arbitration.

On Friday all the unions in the state were voting on the matter of the increase that has been asked of the company by the trolleyman.

In New Haven it was understood that the state conference of delegates would submit an offer from the Connecticut company which will very largely cut the demands of the men, offering a compromise amounting to 30 cents an hour for the trolleyman, and placing no limit on the number of hours per day's work. This report could not be verified Friday. It was also reported among the trolleyman that the road told the conference board that their demand called for a rate of wages higher than that of any street railway in the United States.

The matter of an increase in the pay of harnamen and electricians was another subject which was discussed.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Frank B. Stocking.

The death of Mrs. Mary Edwards Stocking, wife of Frank B. Stocking, occurred Thursday at the home of her son, Louis C. Stocking, at Swansea, Mass. Death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. Stocking was the daughter of Mark Edwards and Eliza Albertson Edwards and was born in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Stocking for a number of years lived on the south coast, where they went to live with their son in Hampton, Conn., a few years ago and moved to Swansea during the past year.

Mrs. Daniel S. Marsh.

Death came to Mrs. Daniel S. Marsh at her home on Williams street, New London, early Thursday evening following a brief illness of pneumonia. She was a native New Londoner, being a daughter of the late N. D. Smith and Mary Abby Morgan, whose families were among the first residents of New London and Rockville, he lived many years here in Chicago during her early married life. Mrs. Marsh was a charter member of Lucretia Shaw chapter, D. A. R., and a communicant of St. James church, New London.

son, Daniel S. Marsh, Jr., and a daughter, Miss Cora Marsh, survive. Mrs. Marsh also leaves two brothers, Abner B. and Frederick S. Marsh, of New London. A host of friends will regret her death and extend to her family the sympathy that will lighten their burden of grief.

F. L. Hill Appointed.

An item in the Portland, Me., Evening Express and Advertiser has this to say of a former Norwich boy:

Fred Lincoln Hill will succeed Harold Clark as organizer of the Plymouth Free Baptist church of Portland, Me. He is the son of Mrs. L. E. Hill of Portland, Me., and has been in the city for some months as an organizer at the Congress square church. He is one of the youngest and most promising organizers in Portland.

Mr. Hill leaves Sunday evening for the University of Toronto, Canada, to take his second examination for the degree of bachelor of music.

G. L. HEWITT REPUBLICAN'S CHOICE

Nominated by Acclamation For Mayor in Enthusiastic Caucus—E. C. Jewett and L. H. Geer For Aldermen—Ticket Completed With Other Well Known Names.

Chairman John H. Barnes, at the republican city caucus on Friday evening in the town hall, summoned the shade of Marcus Aurelius to bring harmony to the republican ranks by quoting a sentiment from the old Roman's writings. The classical allusion by the speaker took with the crowd of 200 men who were gathered in the hall, and when the ticket was nominated it went through on an acclamation vote with the name from Greenwich for mayor down through the list.

E. L. Burnap, chairman of the republican town committee, called the meeting to order just after 8 o'clock.

he believed that Norwich could show the name.

Mr. Tibbits said he proposed to nominate a gentleman well known in business and as an office holder, an efficient county commissioner formerly office of mayor on a former hope and was defeated, but now stood for the nomination when there was opportunity to elect him, and the speaker said he took pleasure in nominating Gilbert L. Hewitt.

There was a burst of applause and the vote for him was by acclamation and unanimous. In each of the nominations made for the offices the vote was taken the same way, and all were elected to the places on the ticket for which they were named.

Other Offices.

For alderman, H. R. Branche nominated E. C. Jewett and Charles W. Pearson nominated Louis H. Geer.

For councilmen George E. Fellows named Ashley T. Boon, L. R. Church named Henry C. Lane, Frank H. Foss named Percival W. Chapman and Col. Charles W. Gale nominated Caspar K. Bailey.

W. W. Ivies placed in nomination for city clerk the name of Arthur G. Chubb, saying that he was a young man who had formerly held the position and made in it an enviable record by his ability, and that his work had never been criticized by the people.

Castello Lippitt heartily seconded the nomination.

For city treasurer, Albert S. Comstock nominated Frank H. Foss, a young man of integrity and ability and one who had served on the school board with satisfaction and had the right qualifications for the place as city treasurer.

George H. Stanton named for city sheriff "our good old Grand Army friend," George A. Rouse, and C. W. Burton named George E. Benson.

For water commissioner, Castello Lippitt named Ansel A. Beckwith, saying that he believed in Mr. Beckwith's case previous faithful service deserved the position.

For water commissioner, Castello Lippitt named Ansel A. Beckwith, saying that he believed in Mr. Beckwith's case previous faithful service deserved the position.
